

41st Audi 100 Coupé S Treffen

Lincoln, England

9th - 12th May 2024

- Lincoln is located around 80km from Hull, which has overnight sailings from Rotterdam, and 350km from Dover if you prefer a shorter crossing and longer drive.

- Historic Lincoln rises majestically from the north banks of the River Witham, on a slope crowned by its beautiful triple towered cathedral. This splendid building, the third largest of its type in England completely dominates the city and overlooks miles of countryside. Its 11th century origins are largely hidden by extensions and additions from subsequent periods, and its many ancient treasures include the best preserved of four existing Magna Carta, a royal charter of rights agreed to by King John in 1215 which sought to prevent the king from exploiting his power. Among many other interesting churches in the city are St Benedicts and St Peter at Gowt's, both of which include a great deal of Saxon work. Newport Arch, the only surviving Roman gateway to span an English street, is a relic of the ancient walled city of Lindum Colonia. The Close, also know as Minster Yard, contains a superb collection of buildings including a fine tithe barn of 1440 and the ancient Bishop's Palace. Lincoln Castle was founded by William the Conqueror in 1068 and over the centuries has grown into the impressive structure that occupies some 6 acres of city ground today. Its main features include 14th century Cobb Hall, which was once a place of punishment, the Observatory Tower, and a fine Norman keep. Other old buildings in the city include the Jew's House, a fine example of a 12th century domestic architecture, and nearby Aaron's House – a product of the prosperous wool age and the oldest inhabited dwelling in England. Timber framed 16th century houses line the High Street as it crosses High Bridge, like a miniature of the London Bridge destroyed in the Great Fire of 1666.

- The City and County Museum is housed in a magnificent medieval building in Broadgate and the Museum of Lincolnshire Life illustrates the past two centuries with domestic, agricultural and industrial exhibits. The Usher Gallery houses a splendid collection of paintings, watches, porcelain and miniatures.

- The treffen will be based at Lincoln Rugby Club, which lies on the Northern outskirts of the city. Camping will be available on site and accommodation will be arranged through local hotels.
